

The William Donald Schaefer Helping People Award Nomination

To honor the unparalleled legacy of public service and selflessness left by former Mayor, Governor and Comptroller William Donald Schaefer, Comptroller Peter Franchot is again recognizing organizations and individuals who best exemplify Schaefer's lifelong commitment to helping people.

Through his award program called the William Donald Schaefer Helping People Award, an individual or organization in each of Maryland's 24 jurisdictions will be recognized for:

- Improving their community.
- Directly aiding the most vulnerable among us.
- Swiftly solving a citizen problem through effective government intervention.
- Creating a public / private partnership to improve the lives of Marylanders.
